

ILRI Security Unit

The ILRI Security Unit (ILRISU) provides staff with safe and secure working conditions at our campuses and offices.

The unit also provides support to staff off campus including at home, on the road, during mission travel and field work with the help of contracted private security companies, emergency first responders, law enforcement, international SOS, fellow CGIAR centres and other security agencies.

October 2016

Main services

- Campus security
- Law enforcement liaison
- Residential security survey
- Security advisories
- Journey and travel security
- Staff training and induction
- Private security companies liaison
- Contracted guard force management
- Investigations
- Emergency response and co-ordination
- Road Traffic Accident [RTA] management and assistance
- Staff personal/domestic issues assistance and advice
- Security escort

Other broad responsibilities

- Security risk management and assessment
- Crisis management planning and execution
- Evacuation planning and execution
- Biosecurity protocols

2017 ILRI staff security training

- Q1–Personal/travel security
- Q2–UNDSS Basic and Advanced Security In The Field [BSITF, ASITF]
- Q3–Active shooter/terrorism training
- Q4–Road security and safety

Emergency contacts (Please save them in your phone)

ILRI Kenya security helpdesk: +254 204223362, +254 202324721, +254 728970722, +254 733634907

ILRI Ethiopia security helpdesk: +251 116172700, +251 973168104

Regional offices: Contact Host Centre or ILRI security helpdesk in headquarters

Contact: Robert Oisebe
r.oisebe@cgiar.org • Box 30709 Nairobi Kenya • +254 20 422 3000 • ilri.org/security

This document is licensed for use under the Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International Licence.
October 2016